

profitability or to assist it during financial difficulty, even though the broker-dealer may not offer the best price and execution. To preclude this type of conflict, Applicant agrees, as a condition of this application, that no company whose stock is held in any Portfolio, nor any affiliate of such a company, will act as broker or dealer for any Portfolio in the purchase or sale of any security.

11. Applicant represents that the relief requested is substantially the same as that previously granted in other applications. Applicant represents that the relief requested is consistent with the standards set forth in Section 6(c) of the Act.

Applicant's Conditions

Applicant agrees that any order granting the requested relief from Section 12(d)(3) of the Act shall be subject to the following conditions:

1. The common stock is included in the DJIA as of the business day prior to the investment Date;

2. The common stock represents one of the ten companies in the DJIA that have the highest dividend yield as of the close of business on the business day prior to the Investment Date;

3. As of the Investment Date, the value of the common stock of each securities related issuer represents approximately 10% of the value of any Portfolio's total assets, but in no event more than 10.5% of the value of the Portfolio's total assets; and

4. No company whose stock is held in any Portfolio, nor any affiliate thereof, will act as broker or dealer for any Portfolio in the purchase or sale of any security for that Portfolio.

Conclusion

For the reasons summarized above, Applicant asserts that granting the requested relief is appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

For the SEC, by the Division of Investment Management, pursuant to delegated authority.

Margaret H. McFarland,

Deputy Secretary.

SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

Statement of Organization, Functions and Delegation of Authority

This statement amends Part S of the Statement of the Organization, Functions and Delegations of Authority which covers the Social Security Administration (SSA). Chapter S2 covers the Deputy Commissioner, Operations (DCO). Notice is hereby given that Chapter S2, The Office of the Deputy Commissioner, Operations and Subchapter S2D, the Office of the Regional Commissioner, and Subchapter S2R, Office of Central Operations are being amended to reflect responsibility for assisting the Office of Hearings and Appeals in providing support in processing backlogged cases. This revision also reflects responsibility for assisting State Disability Determination Services in providing support regarding disability claims backlogs. The changes are as follows:

Section S2.00 The Office of the Deputy Commissioner, Operations—(Mission)

Amend as follows:

The Office of the Deputy Commissioner, Operations (ODCO) directs and manages central office and geographically dispersed operations installations. It oversees regional operating program, technical, assessment and program management activities. It directs studies and actions to improve the operational effectiveness and efficiency of its components. It promotes systems and operational integration and defines user needs in the strategic planning process. It determines automation support needs for Operations components. This Office defines user concerns in the development of operational and programmatic specifications for new and modified systems, including the evaluation and implementation phases. When mutually agreed, provides support to the Office of Hearings and Appeals and/or specific State Disability Determination Services.

Section S2.20 The Office of the Deputy Commissioner, Operations—(Functions)

Amend as follows:

D. The Office of Central Operations (OCO) (S2R) provides executive direction and leadership for the nationwide establishment and maintenance of basic records supporting Social Security programs, foreign claims operations and OCO disability operations. It manages centralized records operations and a stand alone data operations center (DOC). The Office receives and processes Social Security earnings reports from private and governmental employers and adjustments or corrections to posted earnings. The Office maintains Social Security enumeration and earnings records in various media and conducts an ongoing data exchange with the Treasury Department to compile and verify individual earnings data. It directs the OCO processing of claims under disability benefits programs and maintains beneficiary rolls. It directs the OCO initial adjudication and reconsideration of disability claims excluded from State agency jurisdiction and directs the OCO authorization of disability and auxiliary claims not authorized by Field Offices (FOs) at the initial, reconsideration and appeal
